While playing around the house a few days ago, one of Dan T. Wilf's little girls, now three years old, by the name of Rose Kratoch, lay on the floor and began to cry. Her mother, Mrs. Wladimir Kratoch, and her father, Dr. Felix, of Olaton, were called in. The mother picked up the child and, extracting the grain of corn, the youngster was delivered and necessarily no longer cried.

But, the two-year old child of Joe T. Ray, of Olaton, happened to a very painful accident last Friday. The child was playing in the yard and ran across a slab of boiling water that had just been prepared for washing some of the dishes. The child turned it over the side of the tub and turned it into her mouth.

Two years he has shared the honor of his Church and has been prominent in the Masonic fraternity, being loved by all who know him for his devotion to the service of the people he loved, and his devotion to the institutions of his country. He was a member of the of the Masonic School and Bible Society. His service has been invaluable to his community.

Strong in his convictions of duty and unwavering in his fidelity to his people, he has been a man of great faith, of deep spiritual and unflinching trust and sustained by the strength of his own character. He is a man of high character and high ideals. He is a man of high character and high ideals. He is a man of high character and high ideals.

The following disorders which result from the early completion of the improvement on Loch Leven, with slack water in the river, have been reported by the attending physician and do much to bring the country and its people to the attention of the public.

WASHINGTON, D. C. March 28. 1891.

DR. WALTER CAMPBELL, of the U. S. Army, has seen three cases of cholera, which he attributes to the slack water in the Loch Leven, which is a result of the improvement on the river. The cases are reported to him by the attending physician, Dr. A. B. McVernon, of the U. S. Army, who is attending to the cases on the Ohio, Harford, and other rivers. The cases are reported to him by the attending physician, Dr. A. B. McVernon, of the U. S. Army, who is attending to the cases on the Ohio, Harford, and other rivers. The cases are reported to him by the attending physician, Dr. A. B. McVernon, of the U. S. Army, who is attending to the cases on the Ohio, Harford, and other rivers.

Mrs. Lado Benn, wife of W. F. Benn, of the U. S. Army, has seen three cases of cholera, which she attributes to the slack water in the Loch Leven, which is a result of the improvement on the river. The cases are reported to her by the attending physician, Dr. A. B. McVernon, of the U. S. Army, who is attending to the cases on the Ohio, Harford, and other rivers. The cases are reported to her by the attending physician, Dr. A. B. McVernon, of the U. S. Army, who is attending to the cases on the Ohio, Harford, and other rivers.

Taylor Davis was arrested at Flower Hill last Wednesday by town marshal John J. O'Connell, and taken to the station and placed in jail charged with grand larceny. The examining trial was held at the station at 10 o'clock on Thursday morning. The evidence being heard and the judge being satisfied that Taylor Davis was guilty, he held in custody at the next May term of the Ohio Circuit Court. His bond was set at $10,000, and as he was unable to place it, he was placed in jail to await the action of the grand jury. It seems that a pack of clothing was stolen from the store owned by Hoyer & Co., who were then of the town of Flower Hill, and the man placed in the express car with the goods. While the agent was absent at the express office, the man slipped out after the office and got the package.

March 21, 72.—A series of sanctified meetings is in session at Hamilton, Ky. Broos, Coz and Smith, of Corydon, Ky., assisted by Barret, Miller and others, officiating.

M. T. C. Lane is erecting a store house in the southern part of town. The building was formerly occupied by the abandoned mine. B. M. Duncan, John B. Neweese and G. W. Taylor were present at the laying of the corner stone. Mary Merceer, from Paducah, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Campbell, at Hamilton, Ky.

Consumption Cured.

"I suffered for ten years of the worst asthma. The physicians, two years ago, said I had consumption and would soon die. I had to send north for several years, but without success. I finally came to the Kalmuk's Almirage Klinik here and after three weeks' treatment my lungs have been cured and I am now as healthy as ever. My health then has been in its prime."

Educational and Other Matters.

By W. L. HAWKINS.

The trustees request is to do so more.

If you would help yourself, help others.

Love can help where reason would fail.

Truth is valuable to the degree that it makes us true.

Liberality does not consist so much in giving largely, as in giving seasonably.

One contrary woman can do more mischief in a school district than half a dozen men.

Wm. Axtor has promised a million of dollars to endow a negro university at Oklahoma.

If you wish to be successful, do what you can do well, and let what others undertake.

Don't worry about the man in the moon, but keep a sharp watch on the man that is in your house.

"Grandpa, do you want me any more?"

"Yes, little dot." "Well, you want a candy?"

"I'll give you one."

A New England man has just obtained a patent for an "electric watch."

Look out, little boy! Look out!

It is said that three-fourths of the national college established in the last twenty years are in the Southern States.

A move is on foot to change the inauguration of the President of the United States from March 4th to the 30th of April.

Problem.—If a man can do the work of 2 boys and I can do the work of 2 women, how many women can do the work of 4 men?

The Century puts the number of young men in our American colleges at about seventy thousand, and the number graduated every year at about ten thousand.

There are three kinds of boys; the Willie, the Woot's and the Car's.

The Willie accomplishes everything, and the Woot's fail in everything.

Mrs. Mary E. Taylor, the little Mary that had a lamp, is still alive and is about 85 years of age. Not having heard of the sheep shorn as a lamb, it is all probability dead.
